The St. Clair Shores Public Library is open for normal hours of operation. However, in keeping with the recommendations from the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services (MDHHS) and the Center for Disease Control (CDC), and out of an abundance of caution, effective today, March 12, 2020, the St. Clair Shores Public Library with direction from the City of St. Clair Shores has:

- Cancelled all remaining library and community events (programs, meetings, workshops, etc.) scheduled through March 31. The Selinsky-Green Farmhouse Museum, the Local History Center and the Library Reading Lounge will temporarily suspend hours of operation.
- Temporarily removed all educational toys and puppets.
- Increased the frequency of daily cleaning schedule and best practices of daily hygiene for the workplace.
- Temporarily suspended accepting donations of materials on behalf of the Friends of the Library.
- Opened the book drop for materials to be returned 24/7.
- Temporarily suspend volunteer and student service hours.
- Encouraged patrons to utilize online services such as Overdrive, Libby, RB Digital for e-resources. Tutor.com is available for homework help and Learning Express for test preparation. Mobile and wireless printing are available from your device. Instructions are available at scslibrary.org.
- Encouraged patrons to visit the Library website scslibrary.org to access their library account in order to review current checkouts, attempt to renew items, place items on hold, and pay by credit card for fines and fees.
- Suspended circulation of mobile hotspots.
